

Covid-19: Guidance for visiting Training for Care

Introduction

This is a guide to visiting Training for Care's premises at Logie Green Road during the Covid-19 pandemic. Any concerns or questions relating to this guidance should be raised with Training for Care's management staff.

Before you come to Training for Care

If you feel unwell on the day that you are supposed to be visiting Training for Care you must under no circumstances attend. Known symptoms of Covid-19 are a high temperature, a new, continuous cough and a loss or change to your sense of smell or taste.

Entering the Building

On entering Training for Care's premises, you must use the hand sanitiser provided at the entrance. Face coverings are also available at the front entrance should you wish to wear one.

Reception and Waiting Area

Visitors to the building should report to reception but should remain in the hallway waiting area, at a safe distance from the reception desk.

Workers, Learners, Visitors who become unwell

Any worker or learner who becomes unwell while at Training for Care should leave the building. Where it is not possible to leave immediately, you will be taken to an empty room or, if an empty room is unavailable, to a safe outdoor space until you can be collected.

Thank you for your cooperation in following this guidance
